IS THERE A HELL?

As creators we do not believe in places that we can't see or go to so the belief in hell would seemingly fall into this category. No one has ever seen this pit of fire under the earth that burns our invisible souls for all eternity. This belief in such a dark and gloomy place has been a great tool for Christians to scare people into converting simply because the masses fear pain and torment as they always have and always will. But the question remains is there a hell?

I believe that there is in fact a hell right here on earth. This hell is real and can be seen and most likely has been seen by most White people living in these multi-racial nations the Jews have created for us. You go to downtown Los Angeles or Chicago and you will see people living homeless in the streets freezing at night. During the day these multi-racial hotspots all over the nation are crawling with non-white gangs that shoot and rape and steal from white people, because it is not enough that we are already being pillaged by a government that works to feed and house them at our expense.

These multi-racial hotspots are not only spread across the entire country with like hornets' nest in which the Jews can cause to riot at any time but they are also overflowing into our very country side where white people fled during what is known was white flight. The armies of the mud races took once prosperous cities and chase us into the country side where we tried to escape the hell that we allowed to be created.

There is a solution, a way to close the gates of hell and creativity has the solution. We must start with straightening out the white man's thinking and then once white people begin to think right they will act right. We will no longer live in hell, because the white people of our nation will again be the warriors that their ancestors remember and slam the gates of hell so hard that the Jews will fall from their throne. It is our racial duty as creators to spread our racial religion to the white people that are suffering in this eternal hell. The Christians used a make believe place for the last 2000 years to scare people, but here we can give them the facts in which no man, woman, or child can deny.

The wedge and separation

After all years i have went out of my way to work with all sorts of different Pro White groups and individuals. Early on even sacrificing my principles of Creativity for the "good" of white racial unity. Oh yes, I have felt victim and beat the hippie drum of unity. With hopes that it was actually accomplish able. It was and is a futile endeavor, as i and others have seen it fail time and time again. I have broken it down in previous articles that it is not in our nature. Our fratricidal conflicts are key to who we are. But only in the this modern age of de-evolution do we defy our natural instincts and wish to adopt the suicidal Hippie peace, love and unity debacle that only serves the purpose of our enemies. It has always been my purpose to focus on the enemy first.

Enemy: a person who is actively opposed or hostile to someone or something

Well, one can take that in many ways. Being a proud member of TCM quite a few fit this category. I have always been big on keeping things simple. If someone lies on you, betrays you, goes out of their way to slander and defame you, then they indeed fit that definition. Even if they at one time called you brother or claim to share common interests as you. If their actions speak against you accomplishing your goals in that common interest, then they do not truly share that interest. Many times I wanted to sit down, expose many for the what they are. But that would put them on my level or bring me down to theirs. I have felt victim to this many times.

Engaging in their personal attacks on me and/or my religion. Falling into the trap and regretting it every time. I understand many of us including myself feel compelled to defend ourselves. I especially feel this as I am attacked more than anyone else in TCM. But if it wasn't me it would be someone else. Or something else.

Instead we can simply separate ourselves from the rest by our actions. REAL world actions. Let our actions speak louder than their actions of the clickity-clack of their keyboards!! One indisputable truth speaks louder than ten thousands of their lies. They will judge, criticize and slander but never show a better example. Simply claim and talk.

Brothers and sisters I felt a need for this short note after recent slander and also over recent CI mailings I received. One of which had the headline "Christ Power not White Power". This nonsensical drivel went on about how no other options for white salvation but through Christ. Which speaks volumes to these people's true goals. They do not serve our race but that of GOD. If GOD was their mission shouldn't they be out fighting and dying if necessary to gain eternal glory in heaven? No instead these people want others to agree with them and do the things they are to cowardly to do. Sounds allot like Jewish tactics to me. I could talk about the contradictions of those Christian folk all day long, point being they do not seek white salvation, they only seek acceptance from their self-created idea of a fictional deity.

I will not consider these folk my ally nor enemy. Instead I pity their foolishness. I defy their false sense of friendship under THEIR conditions and will fight the fight to save my race through the one and only true salvation for the White Race, CREATIVITY!

SOURCES OF CHRISTIANITY

Many Christians believe that the Gospels are evidence enough for the existence of Christ even without historical evidence of any kind. But if his existence is uncertain, how much more uncertain must be the existence of his Apostles, and, as we shall see later, even if they did exist it is highly debatable whether they did in fact write the Gospels as “eye-witness” accounts or even at all. In addition, relying on the Gospels as evidence for the existence of Christ overlooks the fact that three of the four Gospel writers were definitely Jewish: i.e. Matthew, Mark and John, and the fourth, Luke, a physician from Syria, was probably a Semite too. He was also “best friend” of the Jew, Saul, later known as St. Paul, after his “miraculous” conversion on the road to Damascus. And Saul was a Pharisee, a member of the tough and cruel sect of Levites who ruled the Jews at that time. Indeed all, the principal figures and evangelists of Christianity were Jewish. If Christ did exist he was a Jew, and so were all his disciples, with the possible exception of Luke; and according to Klassen, Christ’s mother, Mary, was Jewish as was Joseph, her husband, and so, of course, was “Saint Paul” who was also a major propagandist for Christianity. Furthermore, the basic principles of Christianity, as expressed in the Sermon on the Mount, are also Jewish; they must have come from somewhere, and Klassen tells us the source of these ideas, which he considers have done so much damage to White mankind.

The bleeding Sacred Hearts

Though perhaps originally taken from elsewhere, these nonsensical ideas were the product of the Essenes, a Jewish, religious community situated around the Dead Sea, which existed up to the beginning of the Christian era and then, around 100 A.D., inexplicably vanished. We only know about them because of the discovery in a cave some years ago of the Dead Sea Scrolls on which their views are set out. Why they had been hidden no one knows.

The Essenes were a celibate sect who were extremely pious and high-minded. They practised simple communism (the sharing of all goods) as they considered private property to be evil. They were apparently a revolutionary new movement, a new form of social order: they were pacifists, condemned and abolished slavery and were opposed even to making weapons of war. They were agriculturalists, practised handicrafts and were in fact a new co-operative, communitarian, brotherhood; a religious society, and one of the first to introduce for initiation purposes, the religious rite of baptism, as well as eucharistic meals or communion. Both baptism and communion are main planks in the Christian ritual! What is more, although the Essenes had no Messiah they did have a “Teacher of Righteousness”! — presumably to give them “good advice” and keep them on the right path, just like Jesus Christ!

Klassen believes that the ideas of the Essenes are the main source of the New Testament and have therefore made a major contribution to Christianity, but the Jewish authors of the Bible also took many ideas from the customs and religions of other races amongst whom they had dwelt; notably the Egyptians and Babylonians. They then asserted these ideas were their own. Klassen says the Jews are a sterile race of liars, thieves and parasites incapable of original ideas and without any innate creativity and he asserts that though they are especially proud of having formulated the concepts of monotheism and a universal religion, they did not do so.

The idea of a single God was developed earlier in Egypt (1367 B.C.) by Pharaoh Akhnaton, who called it Aton, while the Jews developed their idea only about 500 B.C; and Buddhism 500 B.C. was an earlier universal religion than Christianity. The Jews also obtained from the Egyptians the concepts of the resurrection of the body after death and a belief in the existence and immortality of the soul and possibly, too, the practise of circumcision and the wearing of their famous skull-caps. The idea of the Ten Commandments written on a stone tablet was also very likely an alien idea adapted by the Jews. For example the Babylonian king, Hammurabi, had written his own code of laws on a number of large stone tablets long before; and the Jews had been captives in Babylon. Then again, the story of Moses in the bulrushes is remarkably similar to the story of Sargon the Elder, King of Assyria, who was also found in bulrushes as a baby. And the Jewish or Christian concept of hell bears a strong resemblance to the ancient Greek concept of Hades, the underworld, where dead souls went. Indeed, the Christian hell, the name perhaps taken from the Norse word Hel meaning the underworld, seems to be merely a cruel elaboration of Hades; and if one were to make a thorough analysis, it is probable that many more alien superstitions could be shown to be the basis of "enlightened" Christian ideas.

This is why Klassen says that Christianity is far from being the beneficial and civilised religion of reason which we have always thought it to be, but is in fact merely a jumbled hotch-potch of alien ideas and superstitions assembled by the Jewish leaders into a cruel system of brain-pollution to divide, confuse and destroy White mankind. This is just like its modern counterpart, Communism, which is produced by the same people and with the same aims. No wonder Christianity and Communism seem so similar!

In fact Christianity is a terrible system of beliefs which tells people that they have "original sin" and will be cast into hell unless they have "faith": the completely unreasonable belief that a man called Jesus Christ existed and is their Saviour. In this way, says Klassen, people in earlier times were forced to become Christians because the threat of eternal damnation was so terrifying. Their fear of it nearly drove them mad so that they would do anything to gain salvation. Klassen says Christianity used the "carrot and stick" approach, threatening people with hell and the loss of their souls while at the same time soothing them with the promise of heaven.

The fact that Christianity is nonsense is clearly illustrated by Klassen's amusing reference to his asking a cleric for clarification on a confusing point of Christianity. "Ask a preacher to explain it and he'll give you an hour's worth of double talk and when you come out of there he will have so browbeaten you, that you think, well he probably has the answer, although you don't understand it. The fact is he doesn't have any answer."

Rev Hale fighting for Polygraph test

Until my arrest in January 2003, I was the leader of the fastest growing pro-White organization in America, The World Church of the Creator. As your readers will recall, I am imprisoned for supposedly soliciting a government informant to murder a federal judge.

I would like to take this opportunity to summarize the facts of my innocence for the benefit of your readers.

First, there is no evidence that I ever asked, told, or urged the government informant to murder anybody. Rather, it is incontestable that the informant, Tony Evola, urged me to join his own (fictitious) murder plot, which I refused. Thus, not only did I not solicit anybody's murder but I actually turned down the government's own overtures. And yet I am the one who finds himself behind bars while the person who actually urged that a crime be committed, Evola, remains free as a bird.

Second, there is no evidence that Evola was even talking about a federal judge on the key date in question. Instead, this was simply assumed throughout my trial and my lawyer failed to contest the matter even though he had ample evidence in his possession that Evola was actually talking about someone else. Hence, there was no federal crime in any event.

Third, my lawyer also failed to present evidence to the jury that I knew all along that Evola was indeed working for the government. Several witnesses would have testified that I had commented on Evola's FBI status long before my alleged crime took place. Since I knew that Evola was an FBI informant, I obviously did not solicit him to commit murder or intend that he do so.

My case has been called one of the most outrageous miscarriages of justice in the history of jurisprudence and that is an accurate characterization. My supporters and I are continuing to fight for that lie detector test that will confirm the innocence that I have maintained these eleven years.

KLASSEN'S TEACHINGS: THIS PLANET IS ALL OURS

We cannot – we will not – settle for less.

In the confused milieu of the present right-wing conservative – Identity – White racist movement a number of strange and contradictory ideas are being bandied about. Some of these ideas are not only downright counter-productive and destructive but extremely dangerous to the very survival of the White Race. Whereas the racial movement has any number of kooks and aberrants hovering around the fringes, we are not particularly concerned about them. Every movement has them. What we are grossly concerned about is some of the destructive ideas that are being pushed by some of our more prominent and responsible leaders in the racial movement, people who should know better. It is our objective to explore and clarify some of the more vital positions that are being advocated.

1. Territorial Fragmentation into a polyglot checkerboard of ethnic groups. (This includes the concept of Regionalism, a closely related defeatist approach.) Both of these ideas, in my opinion, are some of the most bizarre and insane ideas that are seriously being discussed and advocated by several of our White Racial Comrades in their effort to compromise and appease our enemies – the mud races. Basically, the fragmentation idea consists of slicing the United States into “ethnic areas” whereby literally scores of ethnic groups would theoretically be moved and shunted into their “allotted” territories, each presumably “receiving” (who will do the giving?) a choice piece of the United States real estate in accordance with their proportionate numbers. The process would be similar to what we did to the Indians in the 1800's, except now we would slice the entire United States into thousands of reservations and herd not only Indians onto them, but White people, niggers, mulattoes, Mexicans, Haitians, Cubans, Japanese, and everybody else, each into his or her reservation. Or another example would be the South Africa Apartheid system where each ethnic group would have their own compound, with government police enforcing the law that they stay in their compound or “homeland.” This whole idea is basically so insane, it hardly warrants our consideration, were it not for the fact that many of our leading groups and promoters are advocating just such an idea.

When we stop a moment and think about it, the whole idea becomes so bizarre and ridiculous that an endless number of unanswered questions begin to surface, questions which have not been answered and remain unanswerable. In the first place, there are an endless number of minority groups that have special interests and we could divide the population into not only dozens of groups but more like hundreds, or thousands, depending on which way we want to slice it, and who does the slicing. We could categorize by country of origin – Vietnamese, Chinese, Japanese, Burmese, Pakistani, Mexican, Hindu, Mongolian, Fiji Islanders, on down the line. There are about 126 countries in the world to whom the United States is gratuitously dispensing foreign aid. Everyone of them has “refugees,” Immigrants, escapees who reside in the United States. They may number anywhere from tens of thousands (like the Haitians) to thirty millions (like the Mexicans). Surely, each and every one of them rates a slice of territory to call their own here in these United States? The Mexicans alone could reclaim all of the Southwest without a fight, territories our valiant forefathers fought and bled to win for the White Race. There are hundreds more that could also claim to be entitled to a chunk of territory on a nationality basis alone. Then we could subdivide all these hundreds of nations further according to their own ethnic groups. For instance, let us take Russia: There are the Ukrainians, Great Russians, the White Russians, the Poles, the Bulgarians, the Moldavians, the Letts, the Tatars, the Kazakhs, the Uzbeks, the Kirghezians, the Bashkers, the Kurds, the Kalmucks, etc., and on and on. In fact the Encyclopedia claims there are over 175 distinct peoples living in Russia alone, speaking so many different languages that scientists have not yet been able to list them all. Undoubtedly there are any number of representatives of each of these people resident in the United States. Should each of them be “allotted” a territory? Then we go on to each of the other countries with all their multiplicity of ethnic groups, all of whom also have large numbers resident in the United States. Undoubtedly we are already into the thousands of ethnic groups, classified by nationality alone. But then we should (and must!) divide them further by religion – we wouldn't want to mix Catholic Irish and Protestant Irish in the same territory, now would we? or Moslems, Hindus and Sikhs from India? The list is endless, and for anyone to rationally try to cut the United States into little bits and pieces for each ethnic, religious, national and racial group would run into an endless nightmare, that could not be solved by the world's largest computer, nor the most intelligent grouping of brains, nor by any other means.

But supposing by an impossible miracle somehow it was done. Would we have peace and quiet, an equitable solution to the world's turmoil in the United States? far from it. It would be the scenario for endless strife, turmoil, revolution, anarchy and mayhem, not to mention thousands of "independence" movements. This is not just theory. Let us take a real-life example. We could pick almost any country in the world, but let us take a good look at Burma, for instance, as a small scale prototype and microcosm.

Burma has approximately 37 million people. It is divided into at least thirty important minorities, but basically it has approximately ten major ethnic minorities. Listing them alphabetically they are: the Arakan, the Kachin, the Karen, the Karenni, the Lahu, the Mon, the Pa-O, the Palaung, the Shan and the Wa. These have loosely banded together into a revolutionary group called the National Democratic Front, or the NDF. Then there are three more major groups: the Burman, the Chin and the Naga. Each of these thirteen groups are segregated into their own territories in a fashion similar to what some racial leaders here are advocating we do to the United States.

Has Burma had peace and tranquility? Has it enjoyed prosperity? Hell, no. Ever since it was "given" independence some forty years ago and the British moved out, continuous and unrelenting revolution, warfare and anarchy has been the lot of this fractured and fragmented country. Once relatively prosperous in the trade of teak, jade and oil, it is now rated as one of the poorest and most chaotic countries in the world. Its main stock in trade now is opium and the drug trade, most of which is funneled into the United States. But Burma is not the exception. It is more realistically a prototype, a textbook example of a nation fragmented by minorities. There are dozens of other third world countries in the same fix, and any number of others that are not third world such as South Africa, or Ireland or Nicaragua. In short, fragmentation is not a solution by any means. It merely compounds the problem. For us to even think of such a process in the United States is insane, utterly mad, and would only hasten the demise of an already shrinking White Race.

2. Nationalism. In this analysis, as always, we Creators are looking at all problems and solutions from the White Man's point of view. When we examine any idea, we ask the question – is it in the best Interests of the White Race? In this respect there is another idea that is being bandied about that is divisive and destructive from the White Man's point of view, and that idea is encompassed by the word Nationalism. We find any number of groups that head their designation with the word National or Nationalist, the foremost of these, of course, was Hitler's National Socialist Party, the NSDAP. We Creators deplore the word Nationalist per se as being counter-productive, divisive and destructive. When we review the history of the White Race over the last several thousand years, (and especially Europe during the last several centuries) we find an endless series of wars and White people being killed by other White people. Practically all of these wars were fought in the name of nationalism, one nation against another, or one group of nations against another group of nations. The War of Roses, the Hundred Years War, the Seven Years War, the Thirty Years War, the Crimean War, the Boer War, World War I, World War II, and hundreds of smaller wars in between and after. In many of these wars religion entered into the picture, but even when it did, it was still by and large one nation, or group of nations against another. It was the Government of a Nation that instigated, plotted and waged the wars, and they resulted in millions of White men, women and children being brutally massacred.

We Creators deplore and denounce nationalism as such. We espouse instead Racial Socialism (See Chapter 6 of Nature's Eternal Religion). We espouse and promote White Racial Teamwork. (See page 20 of Expanding Creativity.) If we must fight and wage war, let us make damn sure we unite and direct our forces not against each other, but against the mud races, and especially the parasitical Jews. Never again must we engage in war against ourselves, White men killing White men. This is the bottom line and a major segment of our creed and dogma.

3. Polyglot Groups. The idea has been bandied about that if we have a myriad of quasi-racial groups "deploring and lamenting" about their own narrow specialty, that we are then better off than if we join into one major powerful movement. The argument is that "the enemy" presumably the United States government, or the Jewish network, or the C.F.R., or "the Communists," or the I.R.S., or whomever each group deems to be the enemy, (there is no agreement) will not be able to destroy all of a number of polyglot groups in one fell swoop, whereas if we had one big movement, they might. This argument sounds good as far as it goes, but unfortunately it stops in the middle of a no-win mentality. What it is saying is that with thousands of little fractured and fragmented groups as we have seen operating for the past forty years, we will always have a few gnats buzzing at the enemy's ears. Of course, we will never have a powerhouse with which to confront the enemy and destroy them, but we'll settle for being an ineffective annoyance. We Creators deplore this insipid no-win attitude. We say - either we go all out to build a meaningful, massive, all powerful movement into which all our energies and resources are organized and integrated, and confront and destroy the enemy, or we go fishing. We see the enemy as the worldwide Jewish network as the target, not communism, or the IRS or any other tentacle of that Jewish juggernaut. We are out to destroy Judaism in toto, on a worldwide basis, nothing less. Delenda est Judaica! In order to do so we must build one powerful united battering ram that has the power and determination to destroy this worldwide Jewish pestilence.

Again, looking back into history, there is only one powerful movement that accomplished such a breakthrough in recent times, and that was Hitler's Nazi party in Germany during the 20's and 30's. As long as there were two thousand or more fragmented Nationalist parties, nothing was accomplished. When Hitler absorbed them all into his movement (we must remember he did not merge with any, he absorbed the members) then they had the clout to take over the government, and they did.

We in America must do the same. We must not settle for having thousands of fragmented ineffective gadflies buzzing about annoying the enemy, but we must go all the way. We must build that one concentrated organized movement that can and will take over the government.

4. The Turner Diaries and The Order. Some ten years ago or so Dr. William Pierce wrote The Turner Diaries under the pseudonym of Andrew MacDonald. It is the story of a group of dedicated White revolutionaries who wage an underground war of relentless destruction in order to undermine and destroy the "establishment" and government in power. They blow up bridges, railroads, electrical power lines and generating plants, government buildings, and in general, wreak havoc and mayhem. It is written in the form of a diary by one of its fictional heroes, namely Earl Turner.

The Turner Diaries have one fatal and inexcusable flaw, a flaw that leaves the whole plot less than useless. Supposedly, a few generations after all this mayhem, the White Race finally finds itself in control of the government and its own destiny. What the Turner Diaries fail to explain is that the most important step - namely, how they got from Point A to Point B, how they managed to turn anarchy and revolution into control of the government. Whereas the story does describe anarchy, destruction and mayhem in great detail, it then leaves a huge gap, an unexplained lapse. The reader is left hanging in a vacuum as to how all this mayhem is supposed to be rewarded with control of the country.

Now Dr. Pierce is an honorable, highly intelligent and dedicated man whom I have met and talked to on a few occasions and for whom I have a great deal of respect. However, unfortunately the formula espoused in the Turner Diaries is not the answer to our present problem of getting the Jew off our back, and when I say this I look back to seventy years of observing history. I especially look back to the time and place I was born, namely the Ukraine in Southern Russia. When I was born in 1918, there was an abundance of anarchy, killing, destruction and warfare there in the Russian revolution, enough to last anyone a lifetime. Five million people died of starvation in the Ukraine alone. Did this wake up the people to the problem? Did it identify the enemy? Did it produce a righteous outrage to kill and destroy the enemy? Did it produce a meaningful creed and program to set the country back on the road to salvation? No, it did not. It did none of these things. People were killed by the millions (Twenty million White Russians were massacred.) Millions of people starved. People suffered. The countryside was devastated. When the dust finally settled the Jews were in firm control and, today, seventy years later they are still in control. Despite all the killing, suffering, bloodshed and devastation there were a number of essentials lacking for a White victory – (a) the White people did not know who the real enemy was; (b) they had no creed or program to unite them; (c) as a result they killed each other instead of focusing on the real enemies – the Jews. It is a situation that history is bound to repeat today in an America where we in our present uninformed state to resort to unlimited violence and destruction.

Nevertheless, a group of brave young White warriors under the leadership of Robert Matthews took the formula seriously and decided to form an underground group called Brueder Schweigen (German for Silent Brotherhood) or, also known as The Order. They launched into a program of criminal activities such as armed robbery and even managed to assassinate a filthy Jewish talk-show host by the name of Alan Berg. The end result of all this was that these brave young racial fighters, some thirty-five of them, are now behind bars, their energetic activities neutralized and thwarted, probably for the rest of their lives. Bob Matthews is dead, having died heroically in a fiery shootout against the overwhelming odds of a massive SWAT team launched against him by the Jewish establishment.

I believe this is an unduly heavy price to pay in terms of our young activists for the killing of one lousy Jew. If, instead they had each gone their own quiet separate ways, secretly planned and planned well a number of attacks on groups of Jews, they could, for the same price, have killed probably as many as twenty, or fifty or a hundred Jews each. The sum total price exacted for the thirty-five now behind bars could have been several hundred dead Jews, instead of one filthy talk-show host. The thing to remember is that we all have to go sometime anyway, but if we are ready to go, don't go alone, and don't go cheaply. Exact a heavy price from the enemy. Make it fifty to one, or a hundred to one, but not thirty-five good White warriors for one filthy Jew.

Let us take a look at some of the strikes the Arabs, who generally are none too bright, have successfully executed. A classic example is the bombing of the U.S. Marine compound in Lebanon on October 23, 1983. There we find one lone truck driver (presumably an Arab) who willingly went to his death with a big smile on his face. But as he did so, he took with him 240 of his enemies (dead) as well as hundreds of wounded. Now if we compare that maneuver to the effectiveness of what The Order episode accomplished, we find that the lone Arab was approximately 35 x 240, or more than 8000 times as effective as were each of the 35 some members of The Order. Now that, my fellow White Racial Comrades, is one hell of a difference. Let's give this effectiveness a name. Let's call it the Enemy Toll Effectiveness Factor (E.T.E.F.). That is an E.T.E.F. difference of 8000 to 1, comparatively. Nor does the difference in effectiveness really end there. The quality of the enemy destroyed also enters in. We must remember those killed and wounded were U.S. Marines, fighting men in the prime of their manhood, a much more meaningful action than merely killing an equal number of random riff-raff.

Or let us take a look at another successful execution by a (so far) unknown group or hit-squad who successfully executed 22 Jewish rabbis in one fell swoop. Two gunmen posing as photographers, on the morning of September 6, 1986 entered the prize new Neve Shalom synagogue in Istanbul, Turkey. They opened fire with automatic pistols, set their victims on fire and blew themselves (and their victims) up with hand grenades. Going back to our Enemy Toll Effectiveness Factor, (E.T.E.F.), the score on this one is 11 to 1, but actually, because of the place and the rabbis, the ramifications are a thousand times greater. This surprise action frightened the hell out of world Jewry, as nothing else can. This major episode has been suppressed and played down in the world (Jewish) press. Undoubtedly the Jews feared, and rightfully so, that any amount of publicity would give the same idea to other groups throughout the world who would then be inspired to emulate similar actions.

The Jews' fears are well founded. A few more actions like the one in Turkey and the paranoid Jews will be scared spitless (they already are) and will be taking Rabbi Meir Kahane's advice seriously – get out while you can – head for Israel before it is too late! Nothing would please us more. Once they are all congregated in Israel and the American people stop supporting, subsidizing and protecting them, I am sure the Arabs can and will make short shrift of them.

Conversely, the Palestinians have not been doing so well recently in their rebellion against the Jewish tyrants in the West Bank and the Gaza Strip. Since the escalation of that uprising December 8, 1987, 210 Palestinians have been killed in exchange for only four Jews, according to Jewish news reports as of June 21. (Actually, I'm sure many more Arabs have been killed.) That is an E.T.E.F. of 52.5 to 1 in favor of the Jews, a very lopsided score indeed, and it should teach us a lesson, namely that sticks and stones are no match for machine guns. Let that be a lesson for all time! Never give up your guns!

There were several other ingredients missing in the agenda of The Order, as there were with The Turner Diaries. The most flagrant item missing was a positive creed and program for the future of the world. Both The Turner Diaries and The Order made it clear that they were against the Establishment and the present government of the United States, and they were determined to blow up the countryside and the physical plant in order to bring it down in flames and anarchy. The inference was that once the country (the U.S.A.) was in shambles and the "establishment" thereby destroyed, that the problem was solved and victory was ours. This is a rather naive conclusion, and not really any answer to anything.

What neither The Order nor The Turner Diaries made very clear was that the Jewish worldwide conspiracy was the real culprit and had to be destroyed. Nor did they spell out a format of what was to follow when it was destroyed. What kind of a world did they envision for our children and grandchildren? Were they for perpetuating the Jewish-Christian hoax? Evidently they were, since most of them were followers of Richard Butler's preaching that we, the White Race, are the real Israelites, and Christ was our Savior. Obviously there is a schizophrenic and contradictory set of concepts in play here, a belief and attitude that is bound to produce nothing but disaster. On the one hand they are preaching Christian love and forgiveness, and on the other robbery, killing and criminality. Schizophrenic is the word indeed.

Furthermore, what did they have in mind about the rest of the world - Africa, Asia, South America, Australia, or Europe? There was no program, no clear philosophy, no consensus. Only the negative drive - blow up the countryside, bring down "the establishment." What about using criminal means to fund their program? Was this any different than the train and bank hold-ups Stalin used to fund the Bolshevik program? In fact, many members of The Order were outright criminals before they ever joined the movement. Was criminality to be the basis of our future society? Were we going to replace one set of criminals in government with another set of criminals? Were we going to continue to hypocritically promote and espouse the Jewish-Christian blather?

In conclusion, neither The Order nor The Turner Diaries had, or have, a meaningful, comprehensive answer to the dilemma that sorely befuddles the White Race of today. At best, The Order was a group of dedicated White militants, a group to be admired. We need more dedicated White militants, and cannot afford to have them wasted ineffectively. Their intentions were noble, but their thinking was extremely confused. They reacted bravely in a violent, half-baked, knee-jerk reaction to a complex worldwide conspiracy they did not completely understand, especially the treacherous role played by Jewish-Christianity in this life and death struggle. Because of this, they reaped disastrous consequences in an ongoing racial war, a war that is going to demand millions of further White casualties. What we must make sure of is that when we do sacrifice our gallant warriors in the battle, we extract a much, much higher E.T.E. Factor, and not sacrifice ours wantonly.

However, we of the C.O.T.C. do not espouse violence, not at this time. Before we can launch open warfare or even covert warfare, we must first straighten out the confused thinking of our White Racial Comrades, and we must do it by the millions. Putting ten million White Man's Bibles in the hands of our White Racial Comrades would put us well over the top. It would cost us less than it now costs us to subsidize the niggers and the mud races for as little as half an hour. It would be the best bargain we had ever bought for ourselves. We certainly have the resources to do so. By the time we did so, violence would probably not even be necessary. After all, Hitler and his Nazi party took over the German government without blowing up a single bridge or power plant, and with very little bloodshed. We can do the same. The C.O.T.C. has the creed and the program to do the job. One part of it is getting those first ten million White Man's Bibles out.

5. Political or Religious Movement? There are any number of people in the racist movement who claim that the solution is purely political, and we should leave religion out of the picture. This is a shallow, naive and incomplete analysis of both the problem and the solution. History over the ages has taught us that religion comes first. We may call it by other names - Weltanschauung (German word for "world-view") or philosophy, or ideology, or creed, or an idea to which we are dedicated. But religion is really the best all-encompassing word that embraces all. All major movements in history were motivated by their religious core, whether it was Marxism, or Catholicism or Protestantism, or Mohammedism or Judaism. These religions then found political, economic, cultural and nationalistic apparati with which to convey their goals and ideas. But remember, religion was, is, and remains the prime motivator that provides the force, inspiration, and direction to make those goals and motivations become a practical reality.

We see glaring examples of this in the world today. Communism or Marxism, which directly dominates three-fourths of the world today and indirectly perhaps all of the world, is a prime example. It is based on an ideology called Marxism. Then there is Zionism. It is based on an idea spawned by Theodore Hertzl, as espoused in his book The Jewish State. It combines with, pervades and overrides Marxism. But back of it all is Judaism, the Tribe of Judah's original Mosaic religion. Marxism, Zionism, Christianity and thousands of lesser organizations, creeds, ideologies and movements have their seeds in Judaism.

So, the problem is not purely political, nor is the solution. The root of it all lies in ideology or religion. The great White Race could have had the world, a beautiful world, all to itself a long, long time ago, had it only created for itself a racial religion to rally around, a religion that could and would unite it, give it concrete goals, direction and the inspiration to pursue those goals and directions for its own undivided benefit.

6. In Creativity we now have such a racial religion. Only as recently as fifty years ago, before the devastating and suicidal event of World War II, the White Race was supreme and unchallenged throughout the world. The mud races in India, Africa and even China were either in the control of, or controlled by, the White nations of Europe. The only threat to the White nations, were other White nations (manipulated by Jews.)

Today the White Man has been driven out of all these areas, not by force of arms, but through treachery of their own Jew-controlled governments. We can look at Britain, France, Belgium, the United States (especially the United States) and find that betrayal and treachery turned over most of the land areas of the world to the mud races. But the treachery did not end there. The White Man (especially in the United States) is now feeding and subsidizing most of the mud races of the world, and the mud races are exploding in numbers at a rate unprecedented in all history. Not only have the mud races exploded and taken over most of the land masses of this Planet Earth, but they are invading and colonizing the home territories of the White Man himself – England, France, Germany, Holland, Belgium, Canada, Australia, and the United States, (again, especially the United States) and the White Man is not lifting a finger to stop them. The United States is now becoming the dumping grounds for all the scum, criminals, free-loaders and mud races of the world. They are invading us by the millions – from Mexico, from Central America, from South America, from Indonesia, from Vietnam, from China, from Africa – you name it. “Our” government is not only not stopping this massive invasion, but rabidly encouraging it, providing the means and the wherewithal. It is all part of the Jewish program to mongrelize the White Race into extinction and replace it with a mongrelized mixture of brown zombies, dumb, subservient and thoroughly enslaved.

7. Before we come to the solution of this abominable situation, there are a few more misdirected ideas that are being bandied about by our polyglot White racial groups.

(a) The word Democracy, which appears in several nomenclatures. Let me remind these people that “democracy” is a Jewish invention, along with Christianity and communism. It is an extremely useful vehicle in manipulating their treacherous “divide and conquer” technique. Divide the White Race into two opposing groups – then with a small leverage, control the outcome. We Creators denounce the idea of Jewish “democracy,” and strongly support and advocate the Leadership Principle, as did Adolf Hitler, and as has been successfully demonstrated by all viable organizations throughout history, whether it be the Catholic Church, or governments or financial organizations. (See The Leadership Principle in Nature's Eternal Religion.)

(b) The Christian Identity Idea. We have belabored this stupid claim that we, the White Race, are the real Israelites, on numerous occasions, and will not take the space here to review it again. It is so ridiculous and so contrary to any meaningful evidence in history that it hardly needs to be re-examined. (See Issue No. 32 of Racial Loyalty reviewed on Pages 124 to 138 of RAHOWA! on “British-Israel Identity.”)

(c) The Confederate Flag. This outdated relic from the Civil War is not an adequate symbol representing the hopes and aspirations of the White Race today. At best, it recalls a tragic blunder, instigated and manipulated by the Rothschild Jews of large armies of White Men killing other White Men in a stupid and disastrous war that never should have been fought. It was a shameful, cruel, tyrannical war presumably fought over the emancipation of niggers, but in reality it was a war between Eastern Jew power and money power to destroy the wealthy White Southern plantation owners. In either case, it is a war of which we are not proud, and the Confederate flag represents the losers, just as the Christian cross with a Jew hanging on it represents a loser. All the Confederate Flag does is recall a shameful and tragic episode in our history, of White people of the north hating and killing White people in the south, a divisive, no-win “cause” that does absolutely nothing towards focusing on the real enemy – the International Jew.

The Confederate flag also symbolizes the defense of black slavery, an idea we Creators deem highly repugnant. We do not want to enslave anybody, nor exploit the inferior races. What White Man or Woman today would favor the importation and exploitation of black slaves? In fact, we curse those greedy White exploiters who combined with the Jewish slave-trader and dragged the scum from black Africa onto our shores, only to now leave us with the consequences of an eve spreading black plague.

How much better to replace the Confederate flag with the Creativity Logo – which says loud and clear – We, the White Race, are the crowning glory of Nature's Realm, and we cherish, honor and defend our racial good fortune as our most sacred treasure. This, far more clearly represents the goals and sentiment of the White Race on a global basis than does the Confederate flag.

(d) The no-win "Deplore and Lament" approach of most racial groups. For the last forty years more than twenty thousand groups have come and gone deploring the effects of the Jewish onslaught but never coming to grips with the real cause – the Jewish master plan to mongrelize and destroy the White Race so that they can enslave the world without any threat from a (formerly) intelligent, vigorous, aggressive White Race. Few of these organizations ever really identified the enemy (the Jews), nor the means by which we were being destroyed (Christianity and Communism) nor did any of them ever come up with a comprehensive plan as to how to overcome this sinister menace. (See The Flat Tire Syndrome, Issue No. 1 of Racial Loyalty of Expanding Creativity.) All we have heard from these groups is – deplore and lament! Deplore and lament! A rehash of past history (for the umpteenth time) of how we got into this mess! Having thoroughly depressed and discouraged our White Racial Comrades, these Jeremiahs then leave the reader hanging in his misery, never coming up with a viable solution.

8. We Have a Solution! We not only have a solution – but in a powerful comprehensive racial religion, we have the only solution. Our program reads as follows:

(a) Territory. We Creators are determined that the winner take all – that the White Race colonize, occupy and inhabit all – and we mean all – the beneficent territory of this Planet Earth. It is too late to play Santa Claus and divvy up territories to our enemies. It is a stupid idea today, and it was a suicidal idea in the past.

We do not need the mud races to survive. We don't need the Jews to survive. Our unswerving attitude must be – to hell with the Jews! To hell with the niggers! To hell with the mud races! We will either take all, inhabit all, or we will drown in a sea of mud races. The world is becoming far too crowded to support both us and them.

In so doing, we do not want to ever again make the mistakes of history. We do not want to exploit or enslave any of the mud races. Nor will we further subsidize, educate them nor support them in any way. We just want to get rid of them by boycotting them and letting them wither on the vine and reach their own demise. (See "A Planet Devoid of Mud Races," Page 65 of Rahowa! This Planet Is All Ours.) In this approach we are following the good American Way, the same program our illustrious ancestors pursued in building America and the Winning of the West. (See Creative Credo No. 32 of the White Man's Bible, "We shall be Masters of Our Own Destiny – Winning of the West – the Prototype for the Winning of the World".) Anyone who is proud of America, proud to be White, proud of our forefathers' building of America and conquering a continent, should have no problem with the program of Creativity.

(b) We Creators are against a polyglot world of chaos, destruction and anarchy. We do not want to destroy, we want to build a Whiter and Brighter World, to unite the White Race under one powerful all-encompassing religion where the bottom line is the best interests of the White Race and the White Race alone – its survival, expansion and advancement.

(c) Placing ten million copies of the White Man's Bible in the hands of our White Racial Comrades will be a major step in accomplishing this magnificent goal of world supremacy.

9. Can the White Race Accomplish This Goal? You bet we can. We have the numbers (there are still 500 million White Racial Comrades on this planet), we have the intelligence, we have the energy, and yes, we even have the financial means. Just one White multimillionaire like one of the Hunts, or a Ross Perot, could bankroll the whole Creativity movement all the way to victory. (See again "We are not helpless" page 148, and "How to Utilize your Wealth Effectively," of Expanding Creativity.)

10. Let us now draw some far-reaching and comprehensive conclusions. We Creators will neither accept nor tolerate a program that would Burmaize or fragmentize our greatest of all White homelands, namely the United States of America. Nor will we condone or tolerate such a program of Apartheid for any other country on the face of this planet.

We are determined to pursue a course of unrelenting expansion for the White Race until we have colonized and inhabited all the benign and benevolent lands and territories of this Planet Earth. For us it is either all or nothing. This planet is now too crowded for the White Race to survive in a sea of mud races, even if we wanted to, and we do not. We sure as hell will not be so cowardly as to condemn our future progeny to be relegated to a horde of stupid brown bastards. We are determined and committed to a program of not only survival, but to insuring that survival by expanding to the limit of our ability. We want it all, and by Jupiter, we will have it all.

In order to do so we are determined to follow our unswerving program as previously stated and spelled out in Rahowa!

1. First we must straighten out the confused, suicidal and scrambled thinking of the White Race itself.

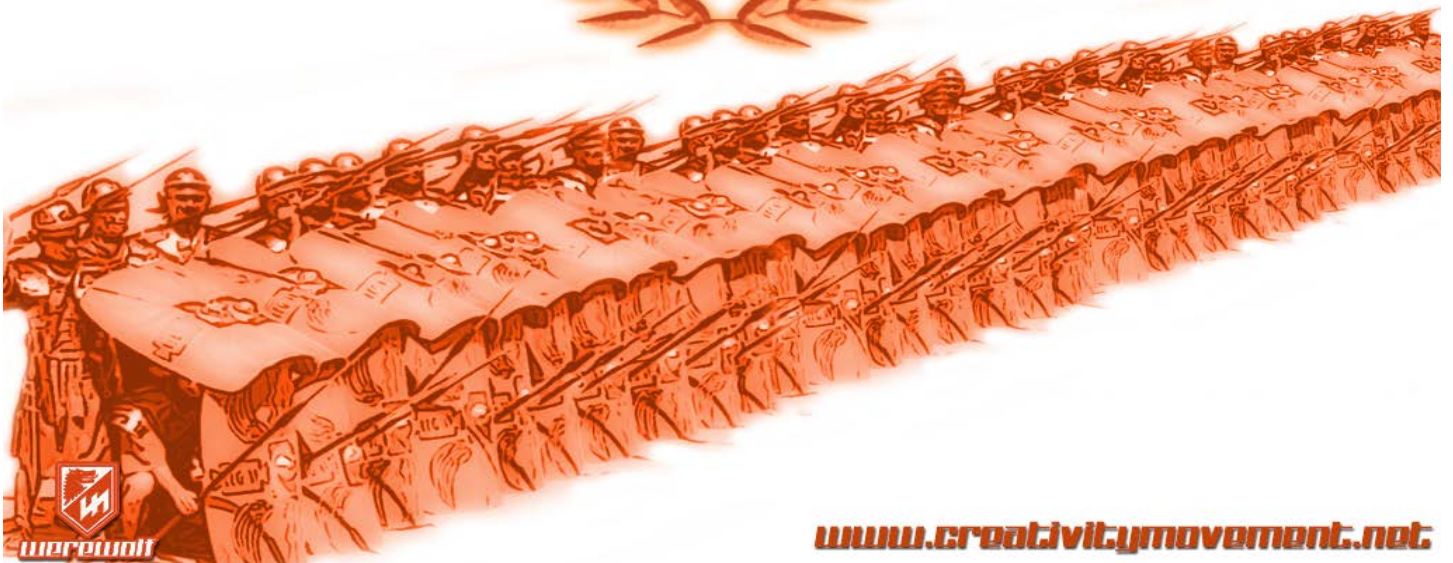

2. This must be done by replacing the suicidal religion the Jew has foisted on the White Man's brain, namely Christianity, by a militant, yet logical religion, dedicated to the survival, expansion and advancement of our precious race.

3. We must then arouse and unite all our White Racial Comrades on a worldwide basis, polarizing them into one mighty battering ram and first of all, Priority No. 1, smash the Jewish behemoth.

4. From there on out, the rest is easy. We will then be able to control our own affairs, our own destiny, our own government, our own finances, our own education, and all the rest of the accoutrements that go to make up a brilliant, prosperous White society. The rest of the mud races will then be of no particular problem, though they outnumber us 20 to 1. All we will then have to do is have the good sense to stop feeding and subsidizing these hungry freeloaders and they will wither on the vine and quietly shrink back into oblivion.

We now have the means, we have the intelligence, we have the numbers. We now also have the religion, the program (see Page 401 of the White Man's Bible, 'Our Unswerving Program') and the fighting words to do the job. We are determined to meet Fire with Fire. Rahowa! As far as the White Race is concerned, there is absolutely no future for us in collaborating with the mud races.
